1: Holmberg--40 [4] (1941-42) 1950 Siriono
116, 576

"Moreover, at this time of day almost no attention is paid to one's neighbor. This is clearly reflected in the native language, which contains no such salutations as 'Good morning' or 'Good night,' and it is rare to ask a neighbor how he slept the night before or to inquire of a sick relative whether he has improved during the night."